

Episode Synopses for June 2022

Feed Date	Episode #	Synopses
06.09.22	IV-110 REV	An affair of the heart evolves into a heartless crime. Inside Investigations examines an international crime ring that costing unsuspecting romantics millions. Plus, when the military reassigned a soldier and his family to another state, a rogue moving company took his possessions hostage. Inside Investigations exposes the risks Americans take when moving home sweet home. And this could happen to you - a woman who finances her grandchildren’s furniture ends up owing three times what it’s worth. See how Inside Investigations exposes a lending company’s predatory practices and makes it right for grandma.
06.16.22	IV-111	A business—selling custom wood American flags—burns thousands of US veterans when they take their money but never deliver old glory. Hear how Inside Investigations makes it right for military families. And fly by night carpet cleaners are impersonating a national company to gain your trust – see what happens when we confront the fraudsters and shut them down. And don’t let this happen to you--if something seems too good to be true, it probably is. See how one man’s fast funds found turns out to be fraud.
06.23.22	IV-112	When a multi-billion-dollar communication company’s dangerous mistake leaves a customer without service for months, Inside Investigations takes on the media giant and their customer “no” service policy and this could happen to you.... When the military re-assigns a soldier and his family to another state, a rogue moving company takes his possessions hostage. Inside Investigations exposes the risks Americans take when moving home sweet home. Then, when a storm damages a homeowner’s roof, his insurance company tries to take a short cut on repairs. See how Inside Investigations goes up against the big guys, to make it right for the little guy.
06.30.22	IV-127	Most of us know, moving can be one of life's biggest stressers. What makes that even worse? Moving when you least expect it. Inside Investigations helps one woman get back her belongings from a storage company who is charging a king’s ransom. Plus, when an erroneous eviction puts a stain on one man’s credit report, Inside Investigations helps him get the record straight. And when a newly purchased trolling motor leaves one fisherman in dry dock, Inside Investigations gets him back on the water.