

Episode Synopses for November 2020

| Feed Date | Episode # | Synopses |
|-----------|-----------|--|
| 11.05.20 | IV-110 | An affair of the heart evolves into a heartless crime. Inside Investigations examines an international crime ring that costing unsuspecting romantics millions. Plus, when the military reassigned a soldier and his family to another state, a rogue moving company took his possessions hostage. Dale Cardwell exposes the risks Americans take when moving home sweet home. And this could happen to you - a woman who finances her grandchildren's furniture ends up owing three times what it's worth. See how Inside Investigations exposes a lending company's predatory practices and makes it right for grandma. |
| 11.12.20 | IV-111 | A business, selling custom wood American flags, burns thousands of US veterans when they take their money but never deliver old glory. Hear how Inside Investigations makes it right for military families. And fly by night carpet cleaners are impersonating a national company to gain your trust – see what happens when we confront the fraudsters and shut them down. And don't let this happen to you--if something seems too good to be true, it probably is. See how one man's fast funds found turns out to be fraud. |
| 11.19.20 | IV-112 | When a multi-billion-dollar communication company's dangerous mistake leaves a customer without service for months – Inside Investigations takes on the media giant and their customer "no" service policy and this could happen to you.... When the military re-assigns a soldier and his family to another state, a rogue moving company takes his possessions hostage. Inside Investigations exposes the risks Americans take when moving home sweet home. Then, when a storm damages a homeowner's roof, his insurance company tries to take a short cut on repairs. See how Inside Investigations goes up against the big guys, to make it right for the little guy. |
| 11.26.20 | IV-113 | When a trip of a lifetime is cancelled due to pandemic, thousands of teenage musicians lose millions of prepaid funds. Inside Investigations finds out why the tour company says they can keep the cash. And an international criminal ring is targeting job seekers with opportunities to earn a living, Inside Investigations exposes the scam. And if you've been in a car accident, inside investigations shows consumers how not to get burned by a diminished value broker. |
| 12.03.20 | IV-114 | Tis the season to be scammed. Inside Investigations exposes how generous and how vulnerable Americans are during the holiday season. And whatever happen to customer service? We'll show how two major shipping companies bumble a package delivery but nobody will take the blame. See how Inside Investigations makes it right. And have you've ever locked your keys in your car? Before you Google for help, watch as Inside Investigations reveal the secrets inside a nationwide scheme that is costing drivers big dollars. |